1. More than 3 million East Germans escaped to West Germany between 1945 and 1961, most of them through the 'loophole' of Berlin, as the GDR gradually strengthened its borders and restricted travel for its citizens. This was nearly a fifth of GDR's population, and predominantly the youngest, most dynamic and best-educated class. Moscow was not pleased, and the future Soviet leader Yury ...

Berlin - Berlin - History: The name Berlin appears for the first time in recorded history in 1244, seven years after that of its sister town, Kölln, with which it later merged. Both were founded near the beginning of the 13th century. In 1987 both East and West Berlin celebrated the city's 750th anniversary. Whatever the date of foundation, it is certain that the two towns were established ...
