Course 15 and NCOA When the email covering the changes to PME came out back in June this paragraph really stuck out to me. "Airmen who have previously completed NCO or SNCO distance learning courses under the previous policy and have not attended resident EPME, will still receive EPME credit and will not be required to attend the resident portion.

It was a resident course for the Air Force's mid-level NCOs designed to develop their leadership and management capabilities in preparation for enlarged roles. Then came tough budget choices. And while leaving many other patently wasteful activities untouched, the Air Force turned NCO Academy into a brief resident touch-and-go preceded by an independent study "distance learning" course.
