~~The Stirling engine (or Stirling's air engine as it was known at the time) was invented and patented in 1816. It followed earlier attempts at making an air engine but was probably the first put to practical use when, in 1818, an engine built by Stirling was employed pumping water in a quarry.~~

~~Alpha model Stirling engine~~

~~A Stirling engine is a heat engine that operates by cyclic compression and expansion of air or other gas (the working fluid) at different temperatures, such that there is a net conversion of heat energy to mechanical work. More specifically, the Stirling engine is a closed-cycle regenerative heat engine with a permanently gaseous working fluid. Closed-cycle, in this context, means a ...~~

~~The plans detail a large gamma engine with 3 inch stroke and 2.5 inch bore power piston and 3 inch bore displacer piston. The displacer cylinder is a steel pipe, and uses external threads instead of fins or a water jacket for heat exchange.~~

~~The Alpha engine is conceptually the simplest Stirling engine configuration, however suffers from the disadvantage that both the hot and cold pistons need to have seals to contain the working gas. There are a number of mechanical mechanisms which enable this type of engine to operate correctly with the correct phasing of the two pistons.~~

~~The first type I'm going to talk about is the Alpha Stirling engine. This type has two separate cylinders, one that is heated and one that is cooled, attached together by a pipe behind the piston. AN ALPHA STIRLING ENGINE HAS TWO CYLINDERS, ONE THAT IS HEATED AND ONE THAT IS COOLED.~~

~~Stirling engine type alpha~~

~~Stirling engine Alpha model. The alpha engine dissociates in a clear way the hot source of the cold source. Indeed, a cylinder heats gas, another cools it. The kinematics is such as one makes pass gas of a cylinder to the other. See below succinct study of this type of engine. 1. The four basic stages :~~

Apparently some extra pupils entered in the third grade. Some extra projects has to be found. We thought of an Alpha Stirling engine. So my question : is there someone pe-lease who could provide us with plans of such an engine. I saw some movie of a rather small engine made by Andy Ross producing a mind-blowing 100+ watts..!
