Arcana VI: Musicians on Music by John Zorn

Arcana is a book that you will go back to again and again. Whether it is to look at Fred Frith's notes on composing and playing (great fun for Frithophiles deciphering the music involved) or the fingering techniques of Bill Frissel this is a book that inspires the act of making music. All of the contributors have uncovered some real gems and John Zorn has done a great job editing this book.
