Black Widow Vol 1 The

In this volume we see Black Widow take jobs to earn money to support the innocent people that she hurt in her previous exploits. There is plenty of action. A few of the issues are stand-alone stories, while the rest are part of a larger story.

Community Reviews. Samnee's art is good and the action is awesome in a mindless way but Black Widow, Volume 1: SHIELD's Most Wanted is very bland and reads like any action spy thriller - instantly forgettable stuff. If you're after an inspired female spy comic, check out Ed Brubaker/Steve Epting's Velvet instead.

As a previous reviewer mentioned, the Black Widow has been one of the lesser known and mishandled characters in the Marvel Universe. In the hands of novelist Richard K. Morgan, he has taken to the character back to the roots of her origin, focusing more on action, espionage, and story rather than exploiting a sexy drawing for adolescent boys to slobber over.
