The Cahier de Doléances (1789):
When the deputies or representatives of the three estates came to the royal palace in 1789, they brought with them their list of grievances, or cahiers de doléances, which were to be presented to Louis XVI. We are fortunate to have many examples of the cahiers at our disposal and a few are presented here.

Cahiers du Cinéma is the most prestigious and influential film journal ever published. An anthology devoted entirely to its writings, in English translation, is long overdue. The selections in this volume are drawn from the colorful first decade of Cahiers, 1951-1959, when a group of young iconoclasts rocked the world of film criticism with their provocative
