An Hypothetical Dialogue on Good and Evil 2020By Fred Pruitt. (From 2002, edited a bit. I wrote this almost 2 decades ago. It seems appropriate to re-print it now.) How is it that you can say, "Everything is God manifesting Himself," and "Everything is His perfection," when that is obviously not the case, since evil and death are rampant in the world?

Good and evil are eternal principles but they may not be made evident at certain times. Just like polygamy is an eternal principle but we are not commanded to live it right now. Satan will be bound during the Millennium, but He and his angels will still exist and evil will still exist, but we will not experience it during the Millennium.
