CONSIDER COST! As you are new at pvp, and are working on solo pvp, and are just generally new, I really recommend not using your most expensive fit you can possibly put together. You are GOING TO LOSE IT. Get a cheap frigate, and hunt down things that you can chew on. Start down low and go from there.

Check the guide linked above for the strengths and drawbacks of each of these methods as well as observing the size restrictions FW plexes impose. In both cases keeping an eye on local is essential. Even if you only pick up one target on D-scan be mindful of local, if the inhabitants belong to the same corp, alliance or even militia, there's a good chance they'll help each other.

The Alphas Guide is definitely a great place to start. Once you're past that, and if you haven't found a good newbro friendly corp you want toto join yet, I would recommend going through the Eve Uni Wiki which has really good starter guides for pretty much any part of Eve you might be interested in. Also, the rookie help channels are garbage and would recommend joining the Eve Uni chat channel.
