“Feathers” takes place in the 1970s and begins when a boy walks into the classroom who is very different from the other kids there. Or maybe he isn’t so different... Where it takes place: I never name the place but was imagining this point between the Brooklyn and Queens border — right near Kennedy Airport.

Feathers Summary. Everything begins in Feathers when a new boy shows up at Frannie's school. This is a big deal because the boy (1) has long hair, and (2) is white. Frannie's school is all black, even though it's the 1970s and segregation is technically over. Nonetheless, white people live and go to school on the "other" side of the highway, and black people have their community on "this" side of the highway.
