Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass Essay Questions

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass Summary. Douglass's Narrative is like a highway map, showing us the road from slavery to freedom. At the beginning of the book, Douglass is a slave in both body and mind. When the book ends, he gets both his legal freedom and frees his mind. And if the book is like a highway map, then the mile markers are a series of "epiphanies," or moments of ...

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass Quizzes ...

An autobiography is a biography of a person written by that person, and it conventionally depicts a process of personal development. Douglass's Narrative is strictly an autobiography at certain points, but it exhibits conventions of other narrative genres as well. For example, at times Douglass intends his life story to stand as the life story of all slaves, or of a typical slave.
