Try to break your fall into parts. If you're falling next to a building, or off a cliff in the wilderness, do your best to break your fall into segments by hitting a ledge, a lower cliff, a tree, or another object. This breaks up the momentum of your fall and divides it into several shorter falls, which gives you a much better chance of surviving.

Free Fall was so good. I wasn't sure what to expect as Emily Goodwin is a new to me author, but I was highly impressed. This book was an emotional rollercoaster, and once I started reading, I couldn't put it down. It was completely engrossing, and Nora and Jack were wonderful characters. Free Fall is a stand-alone novel.
