In order for God to vindicate himself against his own outrageous behavior, he killed his Son. Sanctification It is my prayer that your love may abound more and more . . . filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

God's Passion for His Global Glory | Desiring God

The ballast is God's passion for his glory. He is committed to upholding his glory. He is jealous that he be the supreme treasure in your life above everything else, the dearest things that you have or know. I read this in Malachi 1:14 this morning, "I am a great King," says the Lord of hosts, "and my name will be feared among the nations."

God's Passion for His Glory | Desiring God

In these Meditations on the Glory of God, Dr. Fowler stimulates our sanctified imaginations to picture our Savior, the One who shed His blood on Calvary for our sins, in His thronal glory providentially governing, passionately seeking the lost, and programming our future.

The answer is that God's passion for his glory is the essence of his love to us. But narcissism and megalomania are not love. God's love for us is not mainly his making much of us, but his giving us the ability to enjoy making much of him forever. In other words, God's love for us keeps God at the center.

God's glory is the source, the wellspring from which all smaller glories run. Since God is the one from whom glory comes, He will not let stand the assertion that glory comes from man or from the idols of man or from nature. In Isaiah 42:8, we see an example of God's jealousy over His glory.

esteeming, loving, rejoicing in, and praising God, the glory of God is both exhibited and acknowledged, his fullness is received and returned. Here is both an emanation and remanation. The refulgence shines upon and into the creature, and is reflected back to the luminary. The beams of glory come from God, are something of God,

Living the Vision of Jonathan Edwards

As usual John Piper's passion for the excellency of God is contagious and refreshing. He does not write to add to the word of God but to share his understanding and deep study of the scriptures that an ordinary person like me may not be able to grasp. However, he uses scripture to verify what he writes.
