objectivity and subjectivity in the hermeneutics of legal texts. This enables him to identify the special role of subjectivity for the text, which, he shows, lives and speaks through time via the human reader. But he has done something more, and of crucial importance to the dilemma described above.

The Authenticity of the Text in Hermeneutics

In the literary interpretation field, Heidegger's ideas lead us to read the texts with an open mind, taking into account the history we read in a 'pacific' way which helps us understand the text in a better way. In this sense, the term Hermeneutics is introduced, and it basically refers to the science or art of interpretation. This term ...
