Life on the hyphen can be anyone's prerogative, but it is the one-and-a-half's destiny. I diverge from Rumbaut, though, in stressing the beneficial consequences of this situation. Although it is true enough that the 1.5 generation is "marginal" to both its native and its adopted cultures, the inverse

may be equally
accurate: only the 1.5
generation is marginal
to neither culture.
