A MONOLOGUE ON THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS CHRIST. We call it Good Friday today. However, for the first followers of Jesus it was the darkest day they had ever experienced. Their Lord had been taken from them and had been crucified on a Roman cross, and buried before sundown. For them it was Black Friday, the darkest day they had ever known.

In Mark 10: 17 - 27, a disappointed rich young man walked away from Jesus when He told him what was needed to become perfect. Strangely enough, I have always been attracted by this passage. My focus, however, is not the obvious message. Instead, I look at what may be the more powerful underlying message of Jesus which sheds a different light on the fate of the rich man and reveals hope to ...
