Generally New Year's Resolutions mean making a clean sweep of all male debris in my path. This usually includes hoofing the last 2007 man out of my bed (as he may be wasting precious face time for finding love of 2008), deleting all numbers which might encourage drunk dialling and deleting all photographic evidence of 2007 misdemeanours.

Also, men eat a lot - especially when they're almost 7 feet tall and basically workout for a living. My monthly grocery bill was practically cut in half when I no longer had a Neanderthal of a man living with me 5 days out of the week. 4. My career took off. Half-way into my Man Boycott of 2015 I took a new job and Sleep: To my amazement, on night number two off sugar I slept through the entire night. I hadn't had eight hours of continuous sleep since I was a young teenager, and couldn't believe that this had anything to do with my new routine. But the pattern has maintained. This year has been my most restful in the past 50 years.

Why dogs might fear men. Although behaviorists have studied the issue, there's no clear reason why dogs would naturally be more afraid of men than they are of women, but there are some possibilities, the most likely of which is that the dog was not exposed to or socialized with enough men while she was a puppy, so they are still unusual to her.. First men are generally bigger and louder than ...
