Trek Novels - Unofficial Database of Star Trek Books
Star Trek Voyager isn't "plenty of series". It is the story of a crew led by a captain named Kathryn Janeway, the first female captain in the history of Star Trek and as such, indispensable. She is one of a kind and that makes her survival a must because when she dies, Star Trek goes back to being the all boy's club. Gene would never have wanted that.

The Eternal Tide | Memory Alpha | Fandom

Unlike other Star Trek novels that have a healthy combination of good story-telling and thought-provoking messages, both are sorely lacking in The Eternal Tide. That's probably because the author went through too great a length to resurrect Kathryn Janeway, so much so that the development of other characters seems neglected.
