The Labyrinth Of Osiris

The Labyrinth of Osiris is one of those books that rewards a slow reading. You won't want to take it too quickly - Ariele and Yusuf are men you want to get to know. There are others too who fill the pages and the result is rich, luxurious, sometimes frightening, even terrifyingly claustrophobic, and you'll find it very hard to put down.

The Labyrinth of Osiris is possibly the least 'archaeological thrillery' of Sussman's novels. Instead, it is a penetrating and deeply emotional portrait of two men, so different in a multitude of ways, but who are brought together in the cruellest of circumstances. The secrets they uncover are not easy to stomach.
