Fantasy Book Review: 'The Demon Cycle' by Peter V. Brett.

Desert Spear opens with a new POV character, Ahmann Jardir, showing his rise to power before encountering Arlen in The Warded Man. From there the story syncs back up to the “present” where The Warded Man left off. Desert Spear is darker in tone than the first book, and sets the stage for the larger story. Like the first book, it has a firm ending that might allow a satisfied reader to take an exit ramp.
