Nancy has recently relocated back to her home town of Sunderland, Tyne and Wear, with her husband, Paul, and their English Bull Mastiff, Rosie. They live just a short walk away from the beautiful award-winning beaches of Roker and Seaburn, within a mile of where The Shipyard Girls series is set. The subject is close to Nancy's heart as she comes from a long line of shipbuilders, who were well-known in the area.

Revell has not disappointed. After a heavy night of bombing the girls head to the yard to see if they were needed and they were as needed to plug the holes on the boat they had so nearly finished with. As time passes Bel is still desperate to be a mother again but alas mother nature has said no and she is also stressed about what to do about the horrid fact of who her birth father is and it ...
