The Traitor's Wife tells the story of Edward II's disastrous reign through the eyes of his second favourite, Hugh le Despenser, and his wife Eleanor de Clare, Edward II's niece. I loved the attention to detail and accuracy of the setting, the detail of events. The author is impeccably thorough in her research.

The Traitors Wife

"The Traitor's Wife" is the story of Clara, a maid to Peggy Shippen, who becomes Peggy Arnold, wife of Benedict Arnold, quite possibly the United States' greatest traitor. I hardly knew anything about Peggy Arnold and was intrigued about reading about what the wife of such an infamous man was like.
